TUESDAY OCTOBER 21, 1879.

I'm Not Worth a Dimo. I'm Not Worth a Danie.

[For the Dispatch.]

I'm getting worry of a single life,

Yet, pray, what can i do?

The tried so long to get a wife

That it has made me blue.

It's enough. I think, to make one awear,

Or commit some awini crime;

I cannot wed a maiden fair.

For I am not worth a dime.

I am a chap of good address,
Generous, light-hearted, and free,
And a husband—Lord, I'd make the best
That ever your eyes did see;
For I'd never leave my little wife
To go 'round to billiard halls.
We'd lead a sweet, domestic life,
If she would give up balls.

I've never in my life danced a set,
Or a drink of liquor bought;
And as to playing billiards, now you bet
Fala'i ope of that sort.
"The been told that it's a big expense,
But one thing I know is true.—
It shows a want of common sense
To call a pole a cue.

But dancing—Ah: 'tis an awful sang
Way of getting around a gal that's shy,
And the only way you can give her a hug
Without catching a black eye.
But then you see by some inichance
My feet will not keep time,
So what's the use in trying to dance
When your logs ain't worth a dime?

I've been trying bard to settle down.
Oh. I wish I was at the devil.
The girls they all upon me frown
Because their heads are level.
The last that kicked me, ah! 'twas a sin,
For when came the longed-for time
She laughed and said I am't been,
For you aren't worth a dime.

Yet within my heart there still is hope. Yet within my heart there still is hope,
But as soon as it has fee.
I'll borrow a quarter and buy a rope,
Ane dance until I'm dead;
For i've tried, aims, hard enough
The ladder of fame to climb,
But I tell you the way is devilish rough
When one aint worth a dime.

I want to get hitched. I don't deny it,
To some bewitching little elf.
For I'm told 'tis nice, and I'd like to try it,
Just to judge, you know, for myself.
Some say 'tis a state of perfect bliss,
Free from every doubt and care:
While some old codgers of it speak amiss,
And say, young chap, beware.

But give me your attention, friends,
Ere I say to you good-bye,
If a sweet maiden you know who intends
The blessed marriage state to try.
Tell her you know a man that's true,
And always up to time,
But never say, whate'er you do,
That he is not worth a dime.
C. Y. M.

Here are a few extracts from "Don Quix-Beauty in a modest woman is like a fire or sword at a distance; neither doth the one burn nor the other wound those that come not too close to them. Keep your mouth shut and your eyes

From "Don Quixote."

The absent feel and fear every ill. Self-praise depreciates. The dead to the bier, and the living to good cheer. All women, let them be never so homely, are pleased to hear themselves celebrated for their beauty. Squires and knights-errant are subject to much hunger and ill-luck. Liberality may be carried too far in those who have children to inherit from them. Virtue is always more persecuted by the wicked than loved by the righteous. Every one is the son of his own works. Honey is not for the mouth of an ass. No padlock, bolts, or bars can secure a maiden so well as her own reserve.

Wit and humor belong to genius alone. The wittiest person in a comedy is he who plays the fool. There is no book so bad that something good may be found in it.

We are all as God made us, and oftentimes a great deal worse. We cannot all be friars, and various are Covetousness bursts the bag.

It is easy to undertake, but more difficult to finish a thing. This term is equally applicable to all ranks: Whoever is ignorant is vulgar.

By the streets of "By and by" one arrives at the house of "Never." Between the "yes" and "no" of a woman I would not undertake to thrust the A soldier had better smell of gunpowder than musk.

Other men's wants are easily borne. A bad cloak covers a good drinker. Pray devoutly, and hammer in stoutly. When a thing is once begun it is almost half finished. Lay a bridge of silver for a flying enemy. The jest that gives pain is no jest.

Sips of Panch. A SINE QUA NON.

Patient: Do you mean to say my complaint is a dangerous one? Doctor: A very dangerous one, my dear friend. Still people have been known to recover from it; so you must not give up all hope. But recollect one thing: Your only chance is to keep in a cheerful frame of mind and avoid anything like depression of "LIVE AND LET LIVE."

Village Doctor (to the grave-digger, who is given to whiskey): Ab, John! I'm sorry to see you in this pitiable condition again! Grave-Digger: Toots, sir! can ye no let a'e little fau't o' mine gae by? It's mony a muckle ane o' yours I ha'e happit owre, an' said naething about! PRECEPT AND EXAMPLE.

Great-Grandpapa: Oh, indeed! you can lick your sisters at lawn-tennis, can you? Well done, my boy! But beware of selfconceit, and never brag. Why, I could lick everybody at lawn-tennis when I was your or could have done if there'd been any lawn-tennis to play! I was the best cricketer, the best fencer, the best boxer, runner, jumper, swimmer, and diver I ever came across, either at school or college or after, and in classics and mathematics I beat 'em all clean out of the field! As for riding, no one ever touched me; or dancing either; let alone that I was the handsomest man in the county, and the best dressed, for that matter; besides being the wittiest and most popular. Ay, and such a song as I could sing, too! And yet a more modestand unassuming demeanor than mine it's never been my good fortune to set eyes on, man or boy, these four-score-years-andten-for I'm all that, my boy, and more, though you'd never believe it to look at gnaphic communication from his wife : "St. Louis, October 2 .- For heaven's sake come home, if you are alive. I am so uneasy about you since I read the papers this morning. How near are you to the scene of the massacre? Mary." This reminds us of the Boston girl who wanted to know whether the buffalos ran around the streets of St. Louis at night. Colorado covers 104,000 square miles-more territory than all the New England States combined. -- St. Louis

In building conundrums the answer i the simplest part of the structure. For instance, here is a capital answer: "One is fall shopping and the other is shop falling, but we haven't time to look around for s conundrum to fit it. And again; "One is Hamlet alone and the other is ham let alone." The conundrum necessarily contains semething about the melancholy Dane and diseased pork. Here is one complete; "What is the difference between a church fair and an infant's overstocking?" Answer: "The difference between ladles' begging and a baby's legging.—Puck.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat says : Senator Logan is chairman of the committee appointed to receive General Grant at Chicago. We look to Logan to do his duty in this matter, and to tell Grant very plainly that he is to be the next Republican candidate for President. There has been too much non-partisan gammon taked to Grant and about Grant lately. Every same man knows that Grant, if he fives, will be the Rapublican candidate for Pseadent, and there is no sense in affecting ignorance an the subject. On with the boom.

PERTINENT SARCARE.—[From the Baltimare Garette.]—It would be well, perhaps, for some of the great Democratic editors in Ohio who have been dragging the Democratic party to the edge of a precipice and kicking it over every year for the last ten years to rise up and write a rhetorical essay in double leads going to show that the Democrate were defeated on Tuesday last because the "Idee" was not brought out. suse the " [dee" was not brought out with sufficient prominence.

It is impossible to estimate the cost to the people of Virginia which the constant agitation of the debt question has inflicted. It has kept off immigration. It has frightened away capital, which is always cautious and timid. Just think of it! Who would send money to people who refuse to pay what they justly owe? And this is the po-eltion which the Forethle Readjusters would have the mople of Virginia assume. Halifaz Record.

M. Delaunay, the distinguished French actor, one evening left the theatre with the manuscript of a play called "Vercinge-torix"—the name of a patriotic Gaul of Cesar's time—under his arm. At the cor-ner of the street he was attacked by a foot-"Rascala" exclaimed the actor, promptly, "If you are not off I will break my 'Vercingetorix' over your head!" The thief fled lestantly in great dismay. A recent pie-nic was turned into a hollow mockery by every fellow remembering to bring a corkscrew, and depending on somebody else to furnish the bottle.

at 4 o'clock P. M., (if fair; if not, on the first fair day thereafter,) that VERY VALUABLE REAL ESTATE located as above. The LOT has a front of 71 feet, and a depth of 156 feet to a wide paved alley. On the lot is a VERY HANDSOME DWELLING, three stories above the basement, connected alley. On the lot is a VERY HANDSOME DWELL-ING, three stories above the basement, connected in the rear by a LARGE BRICK BUILDING, erected by the late H. P. Lefebvre for a boarding-and day-school, including those in the dwelling, there are altogether about thirty-five rooms, including two hand ome parlors, reception-rooms, &c. To the east of the dwelling there is a HAND-SOME BUILDING LOT, having a front on Grace street of about 30x156 feet to said alley.

The foregoing real estate is located on Grace street in a most desirable neighborhood. The premises were originally designed by Mr. Lefebvre for a first-class residence and boarding-school, and have long been used as such by the late D. Lee Powell, Mrs. Carrington, and others, and for that purpose or for a boarding-house or a large family they have many advantages.

COMMISSIONERS' SALE OF A MOST
AND FORTY-FIVE AND A HALF ACRES IN HERIGO COUNTY THREE AND A HALF MILES FROM THE CITY OF RICHMOND. ON THE BROAD-STREET ROAD OR DEEP-RUN TURNPIKE, AT AUCTION.—In pursuance of a decree of the Circuit Court of the county of Henvico, entered on the 9th day of July, 1879, the undersh ned, as special commissioners appointed thereby, will on SATURDAY the 25th say of October, 1879, commencing at 4 o'clock P. M., seil at public auction, unon the premises, the REAL ESTATE described above, being the same FARM OR TRACT OF LAND on which Wilnamson Browning, deceased, resided at the time of his death. This farm has upon it a BRICK DWELLING, somewhat out of repair, and the usual out-bouses, and may with little expense be made a most de-irable suburban residence.
Its proximity to the city—being situated upon one of the finest roads leading into the city, and the fact that a sale is absolutely necessary for divisionmakes this a most excellent opportunity for persons dealring suburban lands to secure a bargain.

Thus: One fourth cash; balance on credits of six twelve, and eighteen months from day of sale,
the purchase rgiving his notes, with interest added,
for the deferred payments, and title to the property to be retained until the whole purchase money is paid and a conveyance ordered by the Court.
